

Tennessee Child Support Guidelines
We want to hear from YOU!
Proposed Changes To Be Discussed

The Tennessee Department of Human Services (TDHS) Child Support Program will be holding an open forum for public input on proposed changes to the State of Tennessee's Child Support Guidelines. The Guidelines are what the courts use to determine the amount of child support to be paid. Parents, caretakers, and other interested parties are invited!

Date: Thursday, September 27, 2018

Place: DHS Family Assistance Office
State Plaza Building
2700 Middlebrook Pike, Suite 200
Knoxville, TN 37921
Parking is Free

Time: Stop by anytime between 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM

Some proposed changes that will be discussed:

- If you don't make much money: Updated guidelines will factor in the need to support yourself as well as your child/children.
- If you are or know someone who is incarcerated: Depending on the length of incarceration, he/she may be eligible for a review and/or adjustment of his/her child support case(s).
- Your child's health insurance: If a step-parent or other relative provides health insurance for your child, you may now be able to receive credit for that insurance premium.
